Might magic era of chaos gameplay

An explanation of the game's primary screen in Might & Magic: Era of Chaos. Players will see Main City upon entering the game. There are shortcut keys under the Capital where players can access: Artifact, VIP, Train, Implementation, Missions, Units, Heroes, Backpack, and other primary features. Players can also tap the expedition, statue, altar, market, angel trial and Congress at the center of the map to enter these features. Some features require players to be at a certain level before they become available. Players can glide left or right to move their view of the capital and choose the feature they want to access. Arena rules at Might & Magic: Results for Arena are finalized every night at 9 p.m., and prizes are sent the next day via in-game mail. Players earn prizes by breaking their own historical ups in the rankings. As a reminder, the rules can also be seen through the Arena in the game. The introduction to the might & magic: Players campaign will see Main City upon entering the game. Then I can tap Campaign on the left side of the Capital. Players are grappling with endless challenges in the campaign. Units that die in combat in this mode cannot be reused. Players can collect treasure maps to unlock the final treasure. Select levels also contain chests with goodies inside. If a player reaches obelisk level, he can select one of Buff's three skills to improve his unit. That includes resuscitation of dead units. Hero specialty in Might & Magic: Each hero has 4 specialty slots. Different attribute bonuses can be obtained from different special ones. The attributes of the hero directly affect the strength of the unit. Introduction to the roster system at Might & Magic: Tap on Roster on the left side of the map upon entering Main City. Players can add their units to the list using Roster. Different rosters will add different attributes to the units. The greater the strength of the units in the roster, the better the bonuses for attributes. Players can also upgrade list levels or use diamonds to unlock more roster slots for better earnings. I can't sign in to Might & Magic: 1. There may not be enough space in your device, or there may be too many apps running at the same time. We recommend closing unnecessary apps before running the game and ensuring sufficient space in your device. 2. Check and make sure your connection is stable. We recommend playing on Wi-Fi or on a strong network. If your connection behaves normally and you still can't sign in, we suggest restarting the game or network before trying again. 3. Make sure you have installed the latest version. If it's not the latest version, uninstall the game, then download the latest version from the official site. Hero spells in Might & Magic: Each hero starts with 4 spells and the magic of the scrolls can be used for upgrading. The more magic is improved, the stronger its effects. What are the benefits of VIP systems in Might Magic? Tap the VIP below the Capital. Players can upgrade to upgrade VIP systems that use ape points in VIP. When points are maximized in the current VIP title, players can be promoted to the next title. Each VIP system has special features that can increase profits. Thank you for your feedback. Respect the Code of Conduct and encourage others to do the same. If you meet players unfamiliar with the Code of Conduct, politely encourage them to read it. What can I use to sign in to the game? Android users can sign in to Facebook and Google Play. Apple users can sign in to Facebook and Game Center. You can still tie up your Facebook account after tying up your Google Play or Game Center account. Facebook account binding lets you sign in to the game on different devices. If you don't select a platform when you first sign in to the game, by default, you'll get a local guest account to create characters and game logs. Is the guest account secure? If your save information is attached to your guest account, we recommend that you tie your account to any of the following platforms: Facebook, Google Play, Game Center. Clearing your device cache or uninstalling the game while you're in your guest account is likely to erase any saved game progress, which cannot be recovered. Will I keep my progress in the game if I uninstall the game or change the devices? If you sign in with or bind your account to Facebook, Google Play, or Game Center, your save information won't be lost. When changing devices or reinstalling them, all you have to do is log into the game with the relevant account to synchronize the latest saved data. If you use a guest account, your save information is likely to be lost and unpopular. Can Apple and Android users play with each other in the game? Apple and Android users can play along as long as they're on the same server, so don't forget to invite your friends. I also have an Apple phone and an Android phone. How can I play the game on both platforms at once? 1. Tie your Facebook account to the game so you're free to switch between devices when you sign in. 2. If you sign in with Google Play or Game Center, you must first link your Facebook account. My sign-up account got an injunction in Might & Magic: Era of Chaos, why? To ensure a fair and healthy environment for the game, we strictly adhere to the provisions of the Code of Conduct and deal positively with suspicious behaviors. If your sign-in account is blocked in the game, you may have recently engaged in suspicious behavior such as malicious refunds. How to appeal the ban in Might & Magic: Era of Chaos? If you wish to appeal the injunction in case you cannot access the in-game support interface, open a support case through our Ubisoft Support portal (: 1. Click the SIGN IN BUTTON TO OPEN A SUPPORT CASE. 2. Log in to your Ubisoft account to contact Ubisoft Support. 3. Select Player Reports, Prohibitions, and Sanctions as a category. 4.
